February 9th through March 12th
SELECTED AMERICAN PAINTERS OF THE 1950'S

Theme: This exhibition presents a selection of works by the painters whose native style evolved during the nineteen fifties and whose imagery dominated the pictorial vocabulary of the period rather than attempting to present a comprehensive survey of the 1950's.

Artists: Included in this exhibition with both major works and intimate studies are: Albers, Avery, Baziotes, deKooning, Francis, Gottlieb, Guston, Hofmann, Kline, Krasner, Lieberman, Macarelli, Motherwell, Newman, Pollock, Reinhardt, Rothko, Stamos, Still, Tomlin and Tworkov.
